Appomattox FFA Wins In Wildlife Conservation

The work of the Appomattox County FFA Chapter in wildlife conservation has been judged tops in the Southside Area.

More than 100 wildlife feed patches have been planted by the members of the chapter. A wildlife exhibit was prepared and placed in a local store.

Members of the chapter presented programs on wildlife to local civic clubs. Thirty-three percent of the chapter members are carrying supervised occupational experience programs in wildlife management.

The work of the chapter will be considered along with that of five other area winners for the state award. Presentation of the state award will be a program feature of the State FFA Convention at Blacksburg June 12-15.

"Stamps & Stories" Available By Mail

"Stamps and Stories", "The Exciting Saga of U. S. History Told in Stamps," is the title of the new book being sold by the Postal Service's Philatelic Sales Unit, Washington, D.C. 20036, and at selected major post offices.

The 224-page book is available in a paperback edition for $2 plus 50 cents handling charge for mail orders. A hardcover edition is being offered at $5.95 plus the handling fee.

Designed to introduce the non-collector to stamps and stamp collecting, the book illustrates stamps in color and provides capsule stories about great moments of American history.
